

GRANTH SANSKRITI

Reinvigorating Indian Reading Traditions

Organized by: Centre for Indian Knowledge System (CIKS), Sandip University

Date: 26th February 2024

Time: 11:00 AM – 12:30 PM

Venue: SOCMS Seminar Hall, 'S' Building

Objective

To:

- Rekindle traditional Indian reading habits through native language literature.
- Celebrate the cultural and linguistic richness of Marathi.
- Connect students and staff with timeless Indian wisdom.
- Nurture values, introspection, and critical thinking through meaningful reading.

About the Activity

The event 'Granth peti Tumchya Dari' aimed at bridging modern learners with indigenous literary wisdom. It included a lamp-lighting ceremony, welcome remarks by Dr. Ujvala Ulhe, interactions with literary personalities Mr. Vinayak Ranade and Mr. Naresh Mahajan, and discussions on the importance of reading Marathi literature.

Highlights

- MoU signed between Sandip University Library and Kusumagraj Pratishthan.
- Guest lecture on Marathi literature.
- Session moderated by Mr. Vishal Rathod.

Conclusion

The event aligned with the vision of Indian Knowledge Systems, reviving cultural literacy in a modern educational framework. CIKS expresses gratitude to all contributors and speakers.

