SCHOOL OF DESIGN

"Ayurveda and Cosmetic Science: Exploring Concepts and Career Opportunities"

Date of Lecture: 16th October 2020

Venue: School of Design

Speaker: Ms. Tanmayi Shinde

On 16th October 2020, the School of Design had the privilege of hosting an insightful guest lecture titled "Ayurveda and Cosmetic Science: Exploring Concepts and Career Opportunities" by the esteemed expert Ms. Tanmayi Shinde, a well-known figure in the fields of Ayurvedic skincare and cosmetic science. The lecture was designed to bridge the ancient wisdom of Ayurveda with the modern innovations in cosmetic science, providing students with a deeper understanding of holistic beauty solutions and the future of cosmetic formulations. The primary objective of the guest lecture was to explore the fundamental principles of Ayurveda and how they intersect with the rapidly advancing field of cosmetic science. Ms. Shinde aimed to educate students on how traditional Ayurvedic concepts can be integrated into contemporary skincare and beauty products, creating a fusion of ancient healing practices with modern scientific research.

Ms. Tanmayi Shinde's guest lecture on the "Ayurveda and Cosmetic Science: Exploring Concepts and Career Opportunities" was a remarkable success, offering invaluable insights into the intersection of traditional wisdom and modern beauty science. Students left the session with a deeper appreciation for Ayurvedic practices and their relevance in the world of cosmetic formulation, understanding that the future of beauty lies in the balance between science and nature. This lecture has provided students with a unique perspective on how to integrate Ayurveda into their design thinking, particularly in the realm of cosmetics, skincare, and wellness product development. The session also opened up exciting career opportunities in areas such as Ayurvedic formulation specialist, cosmetic chemist, skincare product developer, wellness product designer, and herbal beauty consultant. Students may also consider roles in natural product R&D, holistic brand development, and entrepreneurship in clean beauty and wellness startups, where traditional knowledge is combined with innovative, sustainable approaches to beauty and self-care.
