Event Proceedings

The competition was announced in advance through library notice boards, email circulars, and social media platforms. Participants brought their own art materials and were given to create posters based on the given theme. A panel of judges consisting of SOCMS Dean Dr. Rupali Khaire and SOL Dean Dr. Sharvari Vaidya evaluated the posters based on creativity, relevance to theme, originality, and presentation.

Results & Recognition

- First Prize: Kirti, Aditya and Puja (SOS)
 - Second Prize: Suyash and team (SOS)
 - Third Prize: Akshata and Shreya (SOCMS)
- All participants were awarded Certificates of Participation, and winners received Books during the National Librarian Day celebration.

Outcome

The competition successfully encouraged students to think critically about the importance of libraries and express their perspectives through art. It fostered creativity, teamwork, and appreciation for the library as a hub of knowledge.

Conclusion

The Poster Making Competition proved to be a vibrant and engaging part of the National Librarian Day celebrations. The enthusiasm and talent displayed by the participants reflected the continued relevance of libraries in fostering learning, creativity, and community engagement.
