Research Paper Writing and Publication Workshop Report

Date: 05 September 2025

Time: 07:00 PM

Organised By: Webmaster's Club – Sandip University, Nashik

Speaker: Dr. Anand Singh Rajawat

Mode: Online Workshop (Free for All)

Title of Session: INKSIGHT – From Idea to Publication: A Complete Guide to Research Papers

---

Overview

On 5 September 2025, the Webmaster's Club of Sandip University organised an online workshop titled Research Paper Writing and Publication – INKSIGHT. The seminar was designed to guide students, researchers, and professionals in transforming research ideas into published papers. It provided detailed insights into identifying research problems, writing structured manuscripts, understanding journal indexing, and enhancing visibility of research publications.

Objectives

The primary goals of the workshop were to: - Explain the fundamentals of research paper writing and publication. - Familiarize participants with journal indexing systems and publication metrics. - Provide guidance on framing strong research questions and literature review strategies. - Introduce reference management tools and AI-assisted writing/editing resources. - Equip participants with the knowledge to select appropriate journals and avoid predatory publishers.

Distinguished Guests

The session was honoured by the presence of Dr. Anand Singh Rajawat, who served as the keynote speaker and resource person. His expertise and practical guidance enriched the session.

Opening Remarks

The seminar commenced with a warm welcome to all attendees. The coordinator highlighted the importance of research publications in academic careers and industry applications. Participants were encouraged to view research writing as both a career-enhancing skill and a contribution to society.

Topics Covered

1. Introduction to the Seminar Topic

Participants were introduced to the scope of research writing and publication, emphasizing its necessity in academia and industry.

2. What is a Research Paper?

Defined as an academic document presenting original findings, analysis, or reviews.

3. How to Write a Research Paper

Steps include research problem identification, literature review, following the IMRaD structure, analyzing results, and ensuring proper referencing.

4. Academic and Professional Benefits

Publishing helps in establishing scholarly reputation, career advancement, collaborations, and influencing policy and industry practices.

5. Types of Papers

- Conference Papers
- Journal Articles
- Book Chapters
- Patents

6. Journal Indexing System Comparison

Overview of Scopus, Web of Science, UGC-CARE, and field-specific indexes.

7. Publication Metrics

Discussion of Impact Factor, CiteScore, h-index, SJR, and SNIP.

8. Research Problem Identification

Techniques such as reviewing literature, analyzing “future work” sections, attending conferences, and exploring interdisciplinary areas.

9. Selecting Strong Research Questions

FINER criteria (Feasible, Interesting, Novel, Ethical, Relevant) were explained with examples.

10. Literature Review Resources

Databases such as Scopus, Web of Science, IEEE Xplore, PubMed, Google Scholar, CORE, DOAJ.

11. Comparative Analysis Table

| Aspect         | Conference Paper  | Journal Article      | Book Chapter   | Patent           |
|----------------|-------------------|----------------------|----------------|------------------|
| Length         | 4–10 pages        | 8–25 pages           | Long format    | Technical        |
| Review Process | Light peer review | Rigorous peer review | Editor-invited | Legal            |
| Impact         | Early visibility  | High prestige        | Niche impact   | Commercial value |

12. Types of Literature Reviews

- Narrative Review
- Systematic Review
- Bibliometric Analysis

13. Reference Management Tools

Introduction to Mendeley, Zotero, and EndNote.

14. Standard IMRaD Structure

- Introduction – Research context, objectives
- Methodology – Design, data collection, analysis
- Results – Findings with tables/figures

- Discussion – Interpretation, limitations, future work

15. Submission Process

Covered Editorial Manager, ScholarOne, IEEE Manuscript Central, and OJS.

16. AI Tools for Writing and Editing

- ChatGPT – Drafting, rephrasing
- Grammarly – Grammar/style checks
- Writefull – Academic phrasing
- Scholarcy – Summarization

17. Data Visualization Tools

- Excel
- Python (Matplotlib, Seaborn, Plotly)
- R with ggplot2
- Tableau

18. Journal Selection

Guidance on selecting journals by scope, impact, acceptance rate, and open access. Tools like Elsevier Journal Finder and Springer Journal Suggester were introduced.

EVENT PHOTOGRAPHS

19. Q&A Quiz

Sample quiz questions included: 1. What is the standard IMRaD structure?
2. Which indexing system is curated for Indian academics?
3. Define Impact Factor.
4. Name two reference management tools.
5. What does FINER stand for?

---

Event Highlights

- Practical guidance on avoiding plagiarism and predatory journals.
  - Insights into journal selection and publication strategies.
  - Interactive Q&A session with real-world examples.
  - Introduction to AI tools for academic writing.

Participation & Feedback

The workshop attracted enthusiastic participation from students, researchers, and professionals. Feedback highlighted the seminar's clear structure, comprehensive content, and real-world applicability.

---

Acknowledgements & Gratitude

The Webmaster's Club extends heartfelt thanks to Dr. Anand Singh Rajawat, faculty coordinators, and all participants for making the seminar a success.

Conclusion & Future Prospects

The workshop achieved its objectives by equipping participants with practical skills in research paper writing and publication. Future workshops will explore advanced topics such as systematic reviews, ethics in publishing, and research visibility strategies.
