Introduction

This report outlines the participation of 7 MAH BN NCC Nashik in the “Eco Bappa Initiative” organized at Nashik Municipal Corporation. The event witnessed active involvement from NCC cadets and students from Sandip University, focusing on environmental awareness and sustainable practices during festive celebrations.

Objective of the Initiative

- To promote eco-friendly alternatives for Ganesh idol (Bappa) celebrations
- To spread awareness about environmental conservation among citizens
- To encourage the use of biodegradable materials
- To instill a sense of social responsibility among NCC cadets and youth

Participation Details

Cadets from 7 MAH BN NCC Nashik actively participated in the initiative alongside cadets from Sandip University. The program included demonstrations, awareness drives, and interactive sessions with the public regarding eco-friendly practices.

Activities Conducted

- Awareness campaign on eco-friendly Ganesh idols
- Distribution of informational pamphlets
- Demonstration of clay idol making
- Public interaction to promote pollution-free celebrations
- Cleanliness drive in and around the municipal premises

Role of NCC Cadets

NCC cadets played a crucial role in organizing and executing the event. Their responsibilities included:

- Assisting in coordination with municipal authorities
- Guiding visitors and participants
- Spreading awareness through direct communication
- Maintaining discipline and order during the program

Outcome of the Program

The initiative successfully created awareness among citizens about eco-friendly practices during festivals. It encouraged the adoption of sustainable alternatives and highlighted the importance of environmental protection.

Conclusion

The participation of 7 MAH BN NCC Nashik in the Eco Bappa Initiative was a valuable experience that contributed to community service and environmental awareness. Such initiatives not only benefit society but also help in developing leadership and responsibility among cadets.
