Introduction

Republic Day is one of the most significant national festivals of India, celebrated every year on 26th January to honor the adoption of the Constitution of India in 1950. It is a day that reminds every citizen about the values of democracy, unity, patriotism, and national integrity. The NCC cadets of National Cadet Corps at Sandip University celebrated Republic Day 2026 with great enthusiasm, discipline, and patriotic spirit.

The celebration was organized in the university campus in the presence of the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, NCC Associate Officer, Deans, Principals, faculty members, staff, and students. The event highlighted the importance of national unity and the role of youth in nation-building.

Aim of the Program

- To celebrate the 77th Republic Day of India with patriotism and pride.
- To honor the Constitution of India and the sacrifices of freedom fighters.
- To encourage discipline, leadership, and national service among NCC cadets.
- To promote unity, integrity, and responsibility among students.

Objectives

1. To create awareness about the importance of Republic Day.
2. To inspire students to become responsible citizens of the nation.
3. To develop patriotic feelings and respect for the national flag.
4. To strengthen the values of discipline and teamwork through NCC activities.
5. To encourage active participation of students in national events.

Event Description

On the morning of 26 January 2026, the Republic Day celebration began with the assembly of NCC cadets and university staff at the university ground. The campus was beautifully decorated with the tricolor, banners, and patriotic themes.

The Hon'ble Vice Chancellor of Sandip University hosted the National Flag in the presence of the NCC Associate Officer, all Deans, Principals, faculty members, and students. After the flag hoisting ceremony, the National Anthem was sung with great respect and pride by all attendees.

The NCC cadets presented an impressive parade showcasing discipline, dedication, and coordination. The Vice Chancellor appreciated the cadets for their commitment and contribution towards national service. Inspirational speeches were delivered by the dignitaries emphasizing the importance of constitutional values, youth participation, and patriotism.

Various cultural activities including patriotic songs, speeches, and performances were organized by students to mark the occasion. The program concluded with a vote of thanks and distribution of sweets among all participants.

Conclusion

The Republic Day celebration at Sandip University was conducted successfully with great enthusiasm and patriotic spirit. The event inspired students and NCC cadets to uphold the values of unity, discipline, and service to the nation. The celebration strengthened the feeling of national pride and reminded everyone of their duties towards the country.
