Introduction

Independence Day is one of the most significant national festivals of India, celebrated every year on 15th August to commemorate the country's freedom from British rule in 1947. The celebration inspires feelings of patriotism, unity, discipline, and responsibility among citizens. The NCC cadets of National Cadet Corps at Sandip University enthusiastically celebrated Independence Day on 15 August 2024 with great pride and honor.

The program was organized in the university campus in the presence of the Honorable Vice Chancellor, NCC Associate Officer, respected Deans, Principals, faculty members, staff, and students. The event reflected the spirit of national unity and discipline among the cadets and participants.

Aim of the Program

- To celebrate the spirit of Independence and remember the sacrifices of freedom fighters.
- To promote patriotism, unity, and discipline among NCC cadets and students.
- To encourage leadership qualities, social responsibility, and national integration.

Objectives

1. To honor the national flag and pay tribute to the freedom fighters of India.
2. To develop patriotic values among students and NCC cadets.
3. To strengthen the ideals of unity, discipline, and service to the nation.
4. To motivate cadets to actively participate in nation-building activities.

Event Details

The Independence Day celebration began in the morning with the assembly of NCC cadets and university members at the parade ground. The Honorable Vice Chancellor of Sandip University hoisted the national flag in the presence of the NCC Associate Officer, all Deans, Principals, teaching and non-teaching staff, and students.

After the flag hoisting ceremony, all participants proudly sang the National Anthem. The NCC cadets presented an impressive parade and saluted the national flag as a mark of respect and patriotism. The discipline and coordination displayed by the cadets were highly appreciated by the dignitaries.

The Vice Chancellor addressed the gathering and spoke about the importance of Independence Day, national unity, youth empowerment, and the role of NCC cadets in serving the nation. The NCC Associate Officer also motivated the cadets to maintain discipline, leadership, and dedication toward society and the country.

Various cultural activities and patriotic performances were conducted by students, creating an atmosphere of national pride and enthusiasm throughout the campus.

Conclusion

The Independence Day celebration at Sandip University was conducted successfully with great enthusiasm and patriotic spirit. The active participation of NCC cadets, students, faculty members, and university authorities made the event memorable and inspiring. The program strengthened the values of unity, discipline, leadership, and love for the nation among all participants
