Outline of the Program:

School of Law, Sandip University, Nashik has organized a guest lecture of Prof. (Dr.) R. Venkata Rao, Vice Chancellor, National Law School of India University, Bangalore on the topic 'The Importance of Ethics in Legal Profession'.

He has highlighted on the need of ethics in the life of Professionals. He has brought out the definition of Professional by way of Example. He cited the former CEO of Infosys that out of many professionals that he had met in life, he found one auto rickshaw driver as the most professional person as he is devoting his working hours not only earning his bread and butter but also serving the society.

He has highlighted the role of ethics in shaping the greatest personalities of India. He has given the example of Simplicity of Mr. Abdul Kalam, the Late President of India. He recalled how once when Indira Gandhi asked Mr. Kalam to meet, he conveyed his reluctance to Satish Dhawan as he was having only two pairs of clothes, one was wet and other one was soiled. Indira Gandhi asked him to meet in soiled clothes appreciating the simplicity of Mr. Abdul Kalam.

He has appreciated the infrastructure of Sandip University and called upon the young and energetic minds to shape the destiny of the nation by practicing the ethics engrossed from the exemplary life of the greatest personalities all over the World.

He has agreed to enter into Memorandum of Understanding with the School of Law. He also assented to student exchange program with School of Law, Sandip University, Nashik.
