8. Event Outline, Objective & Outcome of the event:

Outline: The visit was conducted at Paras Traders, Nashik on 08.09.2026 which is located at Satpur, Nashik

Objective: The visit was meant for the subject named Hydrology and Irrigation Planning of Third year Civil Engineering students to understand practical knowledge.

1. To explore the world of plumbing where industry meets academia.
2. To provide students with practical knowledge of various plumbing appliances, materials, specifications, applications and prevailing market rates.
3. To bridge the gap between classroom theory and actual operations.

Outcome of visit

1. The interaction offered valuable industry exposure and enhanced students' understanding of the selection, quality, application and cost of plumbing materials and appliances.
2. Students transition from looking at engineering drawings to physically identifying industrial-grade PVC, UPVC, CPVC, and HDPE pipes, understanding exactly why specific materials are chosen for different engineering environments.
3. Students will understand the exact applications of plumbing components, distinctively separating domestic plumbing (SWR drainage, kitchenware) from heavy agricultural systems (drip irrigation, submersible pumps).
