Location: Central Workshop, SOET, Sandip University, Nashik

Introduction

Vishwakarma Jayanti was celebrated enthusiastically at the Central Workshop, School of Engineering and Technology, Sandip University, Nashik. The event was a tribute to Lord Vishwakarma, the divine architect and craftsman, symbolizing innovation and creativity in engineering and technology.

Program Highlights

The program commenced with a warm welcome from Dr. Kiran R. Kaware, Workshop Superintendent and Assistant Professor in Mechanical Engineering, who acknowledged the significance of Lord Vishwakarma in the realm of engineering and craftsmanship. Dr. Vishal N. Sulakhe, Associate Professor and Head of the Mechanical Engineering Department welcomed all the guests of honour for the event.

Guests of Honour:

- Dr. Arun Kumar Dwivedi, IQAC Director
- Prof. Dr. Prakash G. Burade, Associate Dean, School of Engineering and Technology

Both distinguished guests emphasized the importance of skill development and innovation in the field of engineering, encouraging students and staff to pursue excellence in their respective domains.

Participation

The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from all heads of departments, along with teaching and non-teaching staff members. Their presence reflected a strong community spirit and a commitment to fostering a culture of learning and creativity within the university.

Efforts and Contributions

Special thanks were extended to Mr. Nilesh Chaudhari, Mr. Bhalchandra Hire, and Mr. Sanjay Galankar, the workshop instructors, whose dedication and meticulous planning were instrumental in the event's success. Their efforts ensured a well-organized program that was both informative and engaging.

Conclusion

The Vishwakarma Jayanti celebration at Sandip University not only honored the traditional significance of the day but also reinforced the institution's commitment to innovation in engineering education. The event concluded with a collective prayer for the blessing of Lord Vishwakarma, inspiring everyone to strive for excellence in their crafts and professions.

Acknowledgments

A heartfelt thanks to all participants, especially the organizing team led by Dr. Kiran R. Kaware, for making this event memorable. The spirit of Vishwakarma continues to inspire and guide the future generations of engineers and innovators.
