The seminar started at 12:00 pm by felicitation of Prof. Dr. P. K. Dash by Chief Guest, Dean of School of Engineering and Technology Prof. Dr. Prakash Burade. After that he guided students with his few words and handed over the mic to the speaker Prof. Dr. P. K. Dash. He started the seminar by creating full energetic environment as students was also curious to know the history, and technicality behind Space science and the challenges everyone face who is working on it. The session started with the historical part of Space by adding information about the role of NASA and various organizations. It even consisted the economy, history of actions, technologies, future ideas, etc. done by various countries. The seminar was divided into different sessions which students enjoy completely.

It was a good experience by the students and the faculty members of the Aero department. Thankful to Prof Dr. Vishal Sulakhe HOD of the Aero department and SUN Astronomy Club for conducting this event and giving students an opportunity to learn something interesting.
