Brief description of Event:

The School of Law, Sandip University, Nashik, organized the "Constitutional Awareness Day" programme on 12 September 2026, on the occasion of the completion of 75 years of the Constitution of India (as stated on the event poster), to promote awareness and understanding of the values, principles, rights, duties and responsibilities enshrined in the Constitution.

The programme was addressed by Mr. Tushar Pagare, who spoke on Fundamental Rights, Fundamental Duties, and equality before law, social justice, secularism, democracy and the rule of law, and stressed that constitutional awareness is essential for every citizen. Students interacted actively with the resource person.

Objective of the Event:

1. To create awareness among students about the Constitution of India and its significance.
2. To familiarize students with constitutional values such as justice, liberty, equality and fraternity.
3. To enhance students' understanding of Fundamental Rights and Fundamental Duties.
4. To emphasize the importance of constitutionalism and the rule of law.
5. To encourage students to become responsible and constitutionally aware citizens.
6. To highlight the role of youth in strengthening democratic institutions.

Outcome of the Event:

The programme enhanced students' understanding of the Constitution of India and its relevance to contemporary society, and encouraged them to appreciate constitutional rights, duties, democratic values and the rule of law.

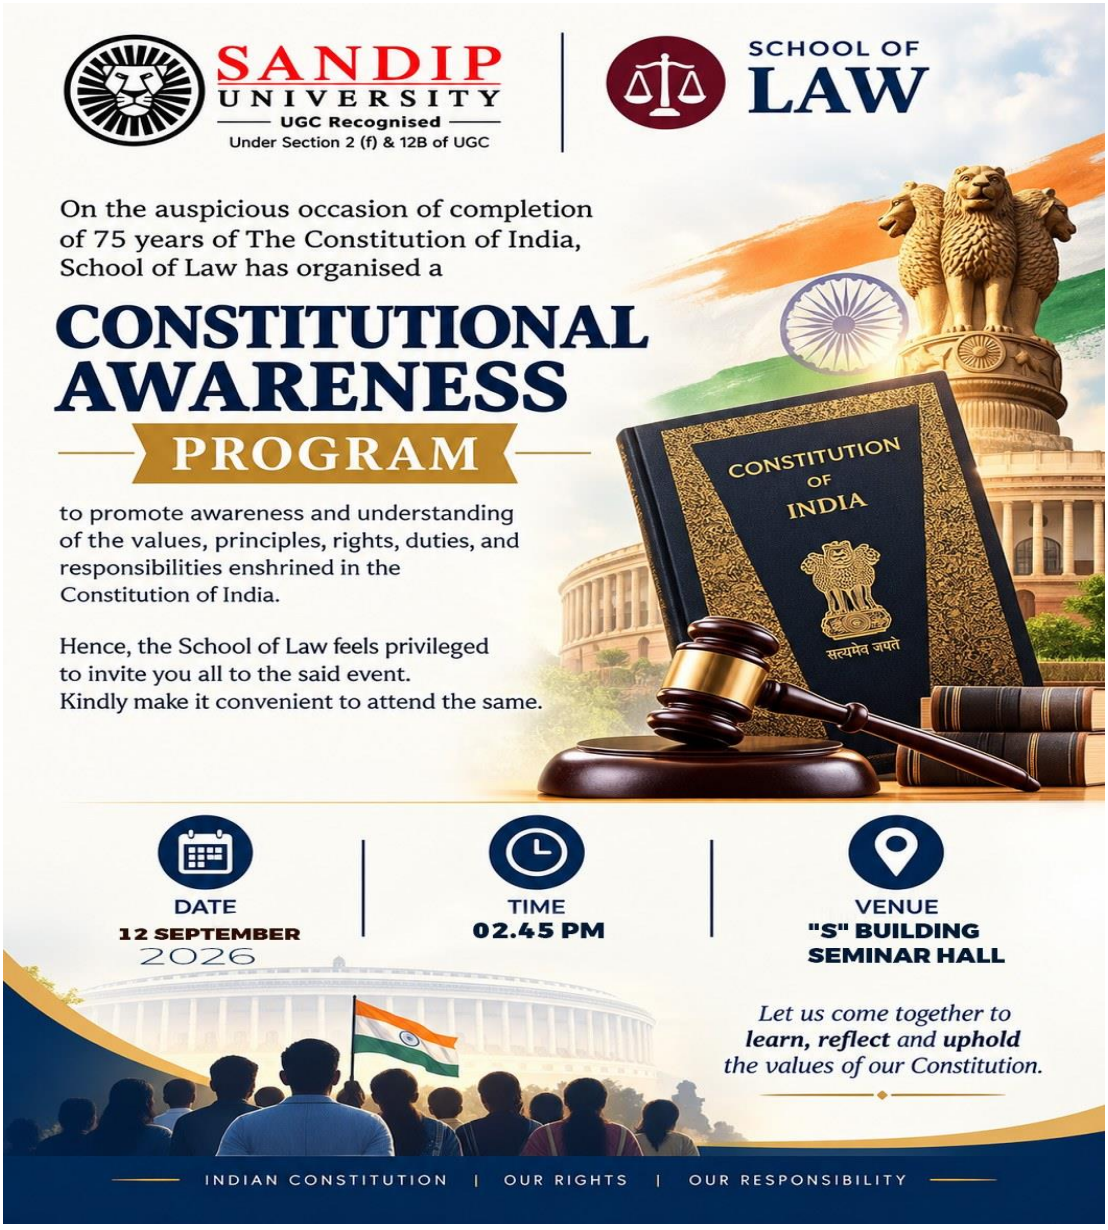

It also reinforced the idea that constitutional awareness plays an important role in developing responsible citizens and strengthening democratic participation.
