Objective of the Program:

The objectives of the 1st Legal Fest, Lex Spective'24 of SOL encompass a multifaceted approach to advancing legal education and practice for SOL students. Primarily, it aims to facilitate knowledge sharing among the students and academics, fostering discussions on recent developments and emerging trends in law. Additionally, the fest serves as a platform for skill development through seminars that enhance practical competencies such as negotiation, advocacy, and legal writing. It promotes networking opportunities, connecting the attendees with the experts to nurture future collaborations. By raising awareness of critical legal issues and encouraging research and innovation, the fest seeks to inspire new solutions to contemporary challenges. Furthermore, it provides valuable career guidance for aspiring legal professionals and celebrates the diversity of legal systems, fostering a rich cultural exchange within the legal community.

Outline of the Program:

Lex Spective'24 is fest for students in which legal guest lecture seminars serve as an invaluable opportunity for students, legal professionals, and academics to engage with experts in the field and gain insights into contemporary legal issues and practices. Typically featuring distinguished speakers such as advocates and scholars, these seminars focus on a wide range of topics, from emerging legal trends to landmark cases and ethical dilemmas. Participants benefit from firsthand knowledge and experiences shared by the guest speakers, fostering an environment of learning and critical discussion. Additionally, the fest encourages networking and collaboration among attendees, helping to bridge the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical application.
