Introduction

The School of Law at Sandip University organized an insightful workshop titled "Soft Skills: The Competitive Edge" on 1st February 2025. The session was conducted by Bonny Ghosh, an esteemed Soft Skills Trainer, with the objective of enhancing students' interpersonal and professional skills, crucial for success in legal and corporate careers.

Objective of the Workshop

The primary aim of this session was to help students master essential soft skills such as communication, teamwork, leadership, problem-solving, and adaptability. The theme "Master the Skills, Conquer the Competition!" emphasized the importance of these competencies in gaining a competitive advantage in the legal and professional world.

Bonny Ghosh delivered an engaging and interactive session that covered:

- Effective communication techniques
- The significance of emotional intelligence in leadership
- Strategies for building confidence and managing stress
- Time management and goal-setting for success
- Practical exercises to improve decision-making and teamwork

The session included hands-on activities, role-playing exercises, and real-world scenarios to help students grasp the concepts effectively.

Conclusion

The workshop concluded with a Q&A session, where students actively participated and sought guidance on real-life applications of soft skills in the legal profession. Participants expressed their gratitude for the valuable insights provided by Bonny Ghosh.

The event was a resounding success, leaving attendees with enhanced skills and a renewed confidence to navigate their professional journeys. The School of Law looks forward to organizing more such enriching sessions in the future.
