Number of Participants: Students of Third, Fourth B.A., /B.B.A., LL.B. (Hons) and First Year LL.B. (Hons)

Outline of the Event: School of Law, Sandip University organised A Legal Aid Camp to the nearby Village Ganesh Gaon for the awareness and understanding about the Laws that govern in favour of these pupils.

Objective: To spread awareness about the “Right to Education” and “Child Labour” for the betterment of the society and welfare of the young generation.

Outcome: The Students showcased two street plays, one on the theme of Right to Education and another themed-on Child Labour to the Public Present so that they understand the value of educational rights and how that will help them to nurture, develop and improve the society at large and how eradicating Child labour is a important part of the society we live in, as it is still in remote areas the children are working to provide and ignoring a better future with an educated life.

Later on, the Headmaster Mr. Brahmanekar and Sarpanch Mr. Sampad Nandede addressed the public and affirmed to the message displayed in the plays. They then had their school students performing on adhivasi folk dances and songs to show gratitude to the students of School of Law, Sandip University for presenting and spreading awareness about the Right to Education and Freedom from Child Labour.

The students also took a survey for the legal issues in any faced by the villagers, for consultancy and providing legal help from the students and relevant authorities.

The Event was Concluded by Mr. Ganesh Gadekar giving Vote of Thanks to the Authorities, School Administration, and Students of Government School, Ganesh Gaon and School of Law Sandip University, and mentioning special thanks to the Management and Authorities of Sandip University for providing such an opportunity for the welfare and development of the Society.
