

Event Report

Event Name: Guest Lecture on Role of Technologies in imparting quality Legal Education and Research

Date of the Event: 8th September 2023

Duration of the Event: 3:00 pm to 4:00 P.M.

Venue: Virtual= Through Google Meet

Name of the Event Coordinator: Rakhee Poonawalla, Assistant Professor, School of Law, Sandip University, Nashik.

Speaker: Dr. Sourabh Ubale, Assistant Professor (PG) and Academic Research Co-ordinator, MM Shankarrao Chavan Law College, Pune.

Objective of the program: Legal research forms an integral part in the life of law professionals, whether they are law students, lawyers, academicians, practitioners who are interested in legal knowledge. To enhance spheres of legal research this session was carried out.

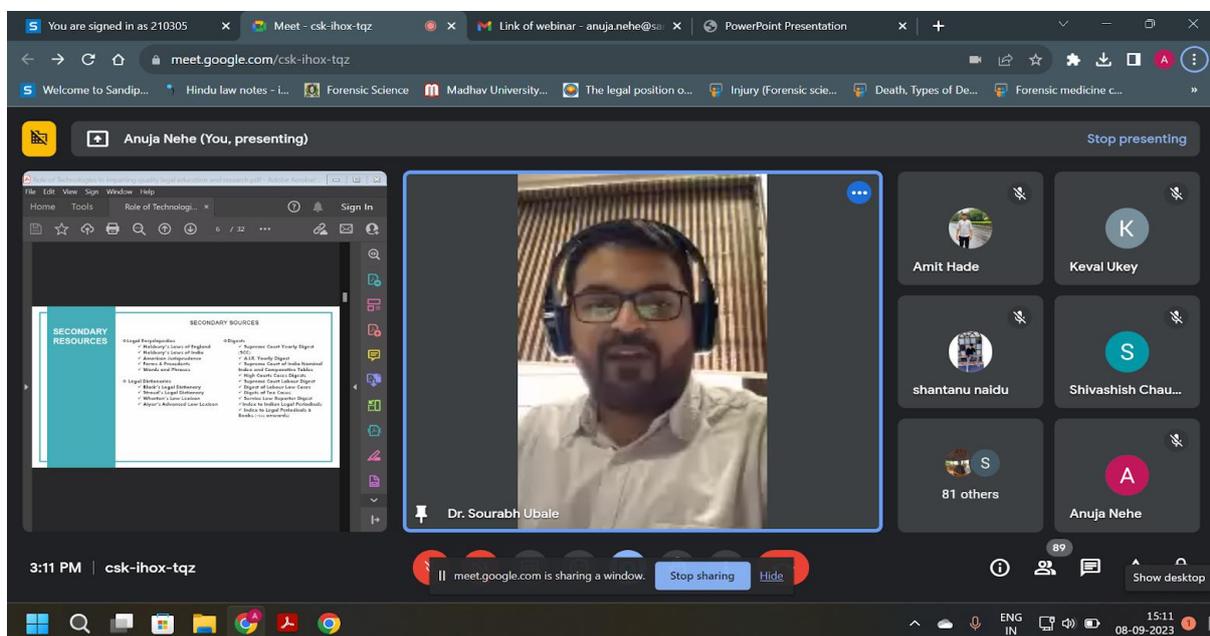

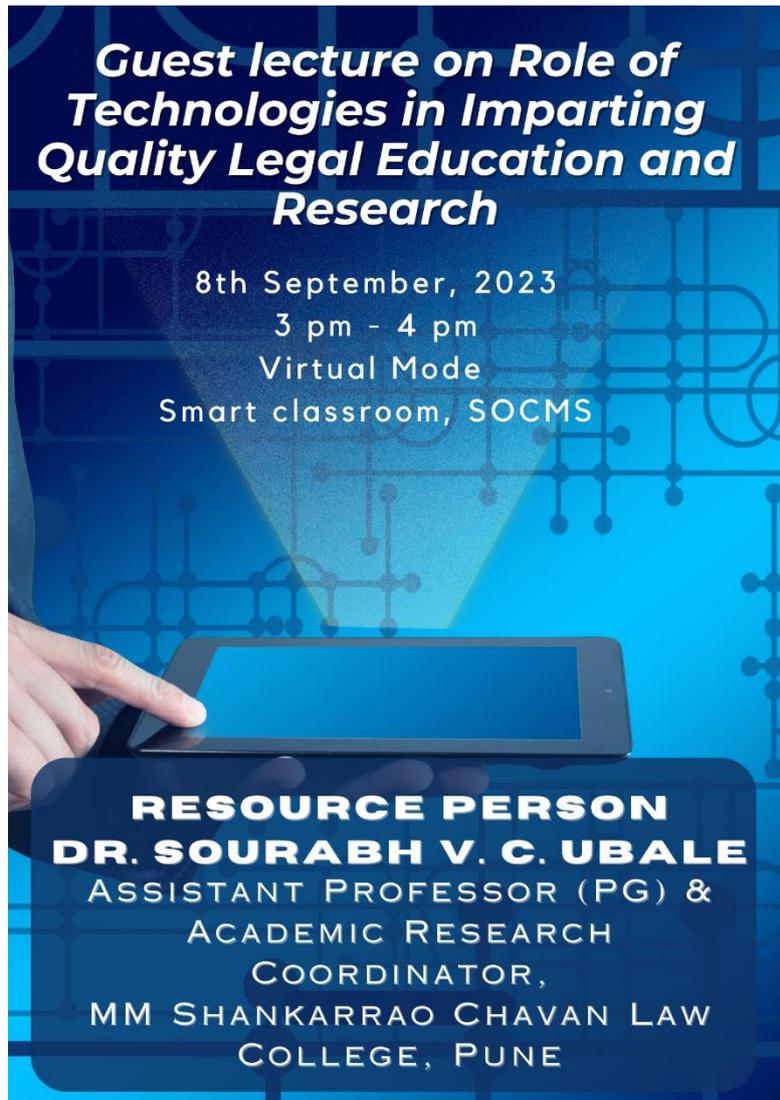

Outline of the Program:

The speaker was briefly introduced to the audience. The speaker emphasised on the importance of legal research to the audience, he did explain the various aspects of legal research which includes finding a law, public domain information, beyond the text and the e- text. Development of technology and its impact on research was the core theme of the session, various e- research dynamics/ knowledge was imparted amongst the audience. Technology has paved a new path for the researchers and is helping the law community in fast and efficient manner to apply their skills. The session was lightened by the presence of the faculties and students of school of Law, the session was concluded with vote of thanks.

Place: Nashik

Date:08/09/2023

Photos of the Event:

Rakhee Poonawalla
Event Coordinator
Mrs. Rakhee Poonawalla