Introduction:

The School of Law, Sandip University successfully conducted the second week of its One-Month Guest Lecture Series – Legalis Academia, aimed at providing practical insights and fostering legal growth among students. The week featured six insightful sessions by renowned legal experts, focusing on various aspects of law, bridging the gap between theory and practice.

Event Overview:

The Legalis Academia Guest Lecture Series is a month-long initiative by the School of Law, Sandip University, designed to bridge the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical legal insights. The second week, conducted from March 24 to March 29, 2025, focused on key legal topics, including property laws, partnership acts, consumer rights, and succession laws.

The event brought together legal professionals and subject-matter experts to deliver lectures that provided real-world perspectives, helping students strengthen their understanding of complex legal concepts. The sessions were highly interactive, with students engaging actively through questions and discussions, making the learning process more dynamic and impactful.

Event Objectives:

1. Bridging Theory and Practice: To offer students practical insights and real-world applications of legal concepts, enhancing their ability to apply theoretical knowledge to practical scenarios.

2. Promoting Legal Awareness: To deepen students' understanding of core legal principles through detailed discussions on diverse legal topics by subject-matter experts.
3. Enhancing Analytical and Critical Thinking: To encourage critical analysis and foster a deeper understanding of complex legal frameworks, enabling students to develop a problem-solving mindset.
4. Exposure to Contemporary Legal Trends: To keep students abreast of recent developments and judicial trends in the legal landscape.
5. Building Competence for Legal Practice: To prepare students for a successful career in law by equipping them with the necessary practical skills and knowledge.
