8. Event Outline

On 14th September 2024, the International Business Club of the School of Commerce and Management Studies (SOCMS) organized a highly engaging debate competition titled "The IB Debate 2024" for all SOCMS students. The event was graced by esteemed chief guests, Col. Braham Singh and Captain Aryaman Braham Singh. The success of the event was made possible through the dedicated efforts of the club coordinator and the entire IB committee, who worked tirelessly to ensure its smooth execution. The competition fostered an atmosphere of intellectual discussion and allowed students to showcase their debating skills. It also provided a platform for learning and exchanging ideas on global business topics, further enriching the academic experience for all participants.

9. Objectives of the event:

- To encourage critical thinking and effective communication among students.
- To enhance students' understanding of global business issues and trends.
- To provide a platform for students to showcase their debating skills.
- To foster healthy competition and teamwork within the SOCMS community.
- To promote intellectual exchange and broaden students' perspectives on international business topics.
