Report on Tree Plantation Drive - World Environment Day 2025

Event: Tree Plantation Drive

Date: June 5, 2025

Number of students :50

Venue: School of Commerce and Management Studies

Occasion: World Environment Day

1. Introduction:

On the auspicious occasion of World Environment Day, celebrated annually on June 5th, the School of Commerce and Management Studies organized a tree plantation drive within its campus. The initiative aimed to raise awareness about environmental conservation, combat climate change, and contribute to a greener, healthier planet. The event saw enthusiastic participation from [mention key groups, e.g., students, faculty, staff, local community members].

2. Objectives:

- To promote environmental consciousness among the academic community.
- To contribute to increasing green cover within the school premises.
- To educate participants on the importance of trees in maintaining ecological balance.
- To foster a sense of responsibility towards environmental protection.

3. Event Details and Activities:

The tree plantation drive commenced at 3pm with opening remarks by the Dean ,Dr.Rupali. Participants were briefed on the correct methods of planting and nurturing saplings. A variety of saplings were planted across designated areas of the campus, including all green areas of SOCMS.

Outcomes and Impact:

The tree plantation drive was a resounding success, with 50 saplings successfully planted. Beyond the tangible increase in green cover, the event fostered a heightened sense of environmental responsibility among participants. It served as a powerful reminder of the collective role individuals play in protecting our planet.
