

Sandip University
School of Commerce & Management Studies

Extension Activity
Campaign on Donation for Special Children's For
Shree Siddhivinayak School
Satpur MIDC, Nashik

Conducted on 07/11/2023

A social immersion initiative taken by BBA V Sem students (Pratik Ugale, Naina Sanjay Gupta, and Deepti Kolhe) for the special children of Shree Siddhivinayak School, Nashik. To support this, SOCMS has conducted one campaign on 7 November 2023 to get the donations for the special children and we are happy to share that all the faculties and students have taken part and voluntarily donated stationary, sweets, and many more things.

SOCMS also organized a DIYA PAINTING competition and students participated with full zeal all the decorative Diyas have been donated to Shree Siddhivinayak School. We feel proud of our students who have taken the initiative for the special children and tried to make their Diwali the most precious one. They visited the Shree Siddhivinayak School and distributed all the gifts to the special children.

Student coordinators for the event are: Pratik Ugale, Naina Sanjay Gupta, and Deepti Kolhe (BBB V Semester students, SOCMS) and the faculty coordinators of the event are: Dr. Tanushree Gupta and Mrs. Madhuri Tambe.

Objectives of the event:

The objective of social immersion activity is to influence the key factors for social action and help youth develop awareness, get sensitized to various social causes, discover which cause they connect to, make a resolve to contribute, and understand the paths available.

Glimpse of the event:

Sandip University

School of Commerce & Management Studies

Faculty and student coordinators with Dean SOCMS

Faculties donated for special children's

Sandip University
School of Commerce & Management Studies

Sandip University
School of Commerce & Management Studies

Faculty and student coordinators for the event

Judging the Diya Painting Competition

Sandip University
School of Commerce & Management Studies

Diya Painting competition

Sandip University

School of Commerce & Management Studies

Student coordinators for the event

Sandip University
School of Commerce & Management Studies

Student coordinators at Shree Siddivinayak School for special children, Satpur MIDC, Nashik

Report Prepared by Faculty coordinator

Dr. Tanushree Gupta

Mrs. Madhuri Tambe