Objective of the Program:

The objective of celebrating International Women's Day is to recognize and honor the achievements of women and to create awareness about their rights and legal protections.

The program aimed to educate students and faculty about important laws related to women in India, promote gender equality, and empower women with knowledge of their legal rights.

Outline of the Program:

The School of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Sandip University, Nashik celebrated International Women's Day 2026 with an informative session on 'Laws Related to Women in India'. The program was organized to spread awareness regarding legal rights, safety, and empowerment of women.

The event commenced at 02:00 PM with a welcome address, followed by an expert talk highlighting key laws such as:

- The Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005
- The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013
- The Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961
- The Maternity Benefit Act, 1961
- The Equal Remuneration Act, 1976

The speaker explained the significance, provisions, and real-life applications of these laws. The session was interactive, with students actively participating and asking questions related to women's safety and legal remedies.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks, appreciating the valuable insights shared by the speaker and the active participation of students and faculty.
