Report on the Celebration of Constitution Day 2025

The Constitution Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm and dignity on 26th November 2025 at [School of Pharmaceutical Sciences Sandip University] to commemorate the adoption of the Indian Constitution. The program was organized by [B. Pharm First Year Students] with the objective of creating awareness among students about the values, rights, and duties enshrined in the Constitution of India.

The program commenced with the reading of the Preamble of the Indian Constitution, followed by a brief introduction highlighting the historical significance of Constitution Day and its relevance in strengthening democratic values such as justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity.

The guest speaker, Dr. Nissar A. Reshi, Dean, School of Science, Sandip University, Nashik, was formally felicitated with a floral bouquet by the Class In-charge of B. Pharm First Year, Prof. Dr. Rahul Hajare, as a gesture of respect and welcome. Prof. Dr. Hajare then introduced the distinguished academic profile of Dr. Reshi, highlighting his extensive experience in higher education, academic leadership, and contributions to science and research. The introduction emphasized Dr. Reshi's role in fostering academic excellence, interdisciplinary learning, and scientific temper, which set a strong intellectual context for his address on the significance of constitutional values in contemporary society. The highlight of the event was the guest lecture by Dr. Nissar A. Reshi, Dean, School of Science, Sandip University, Nashik. In his enlightening address, Dr. Reshi emphasized the importance of the Constitution as the backbone of Indian democracy. He explained how the Constitution not only guarantees fundamental rights but also reminds citizens of their fundamental duties. He encouraged students to become responsible citizens by understanding constitutional values and applying them in their academic, professional, and social lives.
