Subject: Guest lecture Report on the Entrepreneurship held at School of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Sandip University, Mahiravani, Trambakeshwar Rd, Nashik, (MH)-443201, India on September 13, 2024.

Introduction:

On 13th September 2024, the School of Pharmaceutical Sciences at Sandip University organized an Expert Guest Lecture on Entrepreneurship. This event aimed to provide students with valuable insights into the entrepreneurial world, inspiring them to consider starting their own ventures after graduation. The guest speaker for the event was Mr. Chetan Sonawane, a distinguished entrepreneur known for his contributions to the business community.

Event Overview:

Guest Speaker: Mr. Chetan Sonawane, with his extensive experience in entrepreneurship, was the highlight of the event. He shared his journey, challenges, and the strategies that led to his success. His lecture was particularly focused on the importance of innovation, resilience, and strategic thinking in the entrepreneurial process.

Attendance: The lecture was attended by 35 enthusiastic students from the B. Pharm Final Year. Their active participation and engagement during the session reflected their keen interest in exploring entrepreneurship as a viable career path.

Key Takeaways: Mr. Sonawane emphasized several key aspects of entrepreneurship, including:

The importance of identifying market gaps and leveraging innovative ideas to fill those gaps.

The role of perseverance and adaptability in overcoming business challenges.

Practical tips on starting a business, managing finances, and building a strong team.

Conclusion:

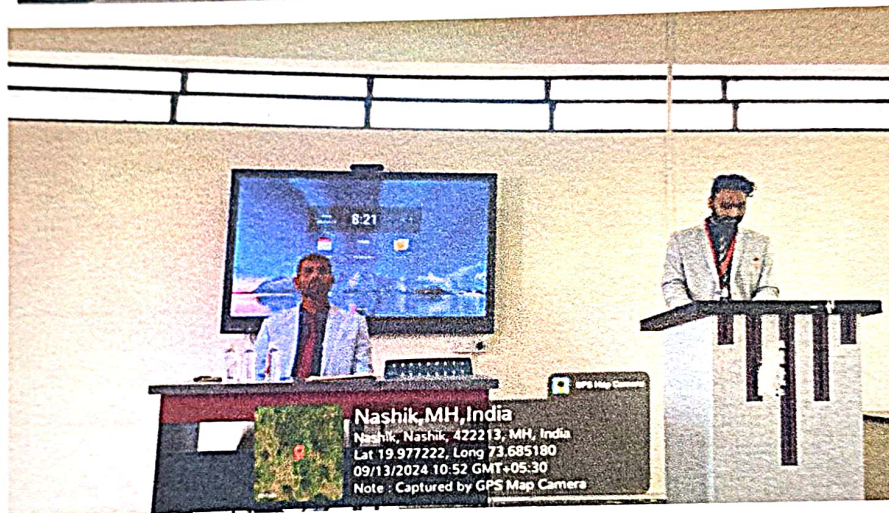

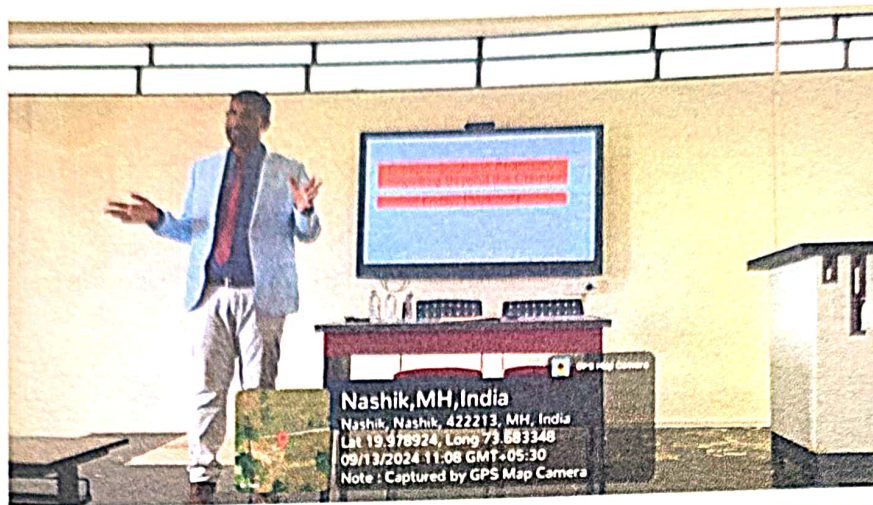

The Expert Guest Lecture on Entrepreneurship was a resounding success, offering valuable knowledge and inspiration to the final year B.Pharm students. The event concluded with a vote of thanks to Mr. Chetan Sonawane for his time and insights for his efforts in making the event successful.
