Event Outline, Objective and Outcome of the event:

Welcome and introduction, felicitation of the guest followed by lecture and valedictory ceremony.

Most of the girls and all lady faculties were present for the function. Gender equality is an ongoing struggle that touches the lives of women and their families everywhere. The International Women's Day is a chance to acknowledge the women in our community and be part of an impassioned conversation that matters to us as an audience. The programme was started with Goddess Saraswati puja and lamp lighting by the dignitaries. Ms. Pallavi Dabhade from M.Sc. Chemistry presented her own recited poem- “Shree: Ek Shilpakar”. Dr. Neha Lad and Adv. Charusheela Khairnar communicated about handling our own sexuality, Healthy Women-Healthy Society and Gender Equality respectively.

Ms. Pallavi Dabhade from M.Sc. Chemistry for poetry book publication and Ms. Rinku Vadhvani from M.Sc. Microbiology for selection at stage I as Food Safety Officer in FSSAI are felicitated.
