Brief description of Event:

The Department of Mathematics organized a Kargil Vijay Diwas Celebration on 26 July to commemorate the bravery, courage, and supreme sacrifices of the Indian Armed Forces during the Kargil War. The event was conducted in Lab 110 and was attended by 40 students of SY – Computational Mathematics and Data Science.

The celebration provided students with an opportunity to learn about the significance of Kargil Vijay Diwas and the valour displayed by Indian soldiers during the Kargil War. The program included patriotic activities, discussions, and presentations highlighting the courage and dedication of the soldiers who defended the nation.

The event created an atmosphere of patriotism and respect among the students and encouraged them to remember and honour the sacrifices made by the armed forces.

Objective of the Event:

- To commemorate the bravery and sacrifice of Indian soldiers during the Kargil War.
- To create awareness among students about the historical significance of Kargil Vijay Diwas.
- To inculcate patriotism, national pride, and respect for the Indian Armed Forces.
- To encourage students to understand the values of courage, dedication, unity, and national responsibility.
